I think with you, that nothing is of more importance for the public welfare, than to form and train up youth in wisdom and virtue.--- Wise and good men are, in my opinion, the strength of a state far more so than riches or arms

B. Franklin

As we end with these pictures in memory of the past, it seems appropriate to include one of Clarence L. Rupley, whose wife is our sponsor.

The present Clear Creek School was finished during Mr. Rupley's freshman year in high school; he returned to serve it eight years as Twp. Trustee, during which time he had Franklin's words inscribed on the gym wall; the ending of his life, April 30, 1966, coincides closely with the ending of the high school, May 27.

The past is for remembrance; if one goes forward with the new beginnings, life may hold wonderful astonishments and joys.
